

Lahaina Breaks Even In Double-Header

The two games of baseball played last Sunday afternoon on Wailuku grounds, were full of vim and excitement. The first game was taken by Wailuku, defeating Lahaina with a score of 12 to 6, and for the first few innings, it seemed that the second game would go to Wailuku as well, as they were scoring easily off of Espinda.

But Espinda was replaced by a new pitcher, and this man held Wailuku down, with the result that they made no more runs and were defeated by a 12 to 6. A return game may be played at Lahaina next Sunday.

PAIA PICKINGS

(Special Correspondence.)

Paia, Aug. 29—Sunday afternoon, the 25th—on the Paia Plantation grounds the Makawao, again defeated the Maui Beatus, at baseball, 7 to 2. A big crowd of spectators was present. There was much "rooting" and considerable excitement especially among the supporters of the "Beatus." A great rivalry has developed between the two clubs.

On the day after prohibition went into effect, on the veranda of John Medeiros' liquor store at Paia, was noticed a crude cross made of rough lumber, trimmed with ropes of fern and bearing these words: "Dead, Who?—John Barleycorn.—R. I. P." Lamplara at night lit up the memorial if such it was.

On Friday, August 23th, E. E. Boyum of the Paia Plantation Cement Plant made a trip into the crater down through Kaupo, via Kahikini and Ulupalakua back to Hamakua, returning Monday, the 26th. The purpose of the trip was to find the proper kind of pebbles (half-sized cobble stones) to be used in grinding the cement. He found some at Mokulua landings, Kaupo. Quite large quantities of these pebbles are used at the cement works, but those taken from Kahului and Haiku have proved rather soft.

Deputy Sheriff Manuel De Ponto is now occupying his pretty brown-shingled cottage recently built in lower Paia.

John Medeiros has just finished the construction of a fine bungalow adjoining Paia Bank.

Harvey Raymond of Ulupalakua enlisted in the navy last week Wednesday and is stationed on naval vessel at Pearl Harbor.

On Monday, the 26th, Mr. and Mrs. W. O. Aiken, Miss Martha Aiken and "Bunnie" Aiken made a trip to the top of Haleakala from Idlewild viewing a wonderful sunset and sunrise. This was "Bunnie's" first journey to the crater.

"Crater parties" are less numerous this summer than during 1917.

"The American people will gladly make any sacrifice in consumption and in the production of foodstuffs that will maintain the health, comfort and the courage of the people of the Allied countries. We are in fact, eating at the common table with them."—President's Message to the Conference of Allied Food Controllers in London.

A Prolific and Militant Family.

John Ward, a negro of Goldsboro, N. C., certainly stands high in the list of those who have sons and daughters actively engaged in war service in one way or another. John has the proud distinction of being the father of eighteen sons, thirteen of whom are in either the 9th or 10th Cavalry, U. S. A. But this is not all, for John also has seventeen daughters, every one of them engaged in war work.

The facts are vouched for by Sheriff R. H. Edwards of Wayne county, in which Goldsboro is located. The sheriff says that Ward was born April 21, 1856, at Goldsboro. He has been married three times, his third wife being alive. By his first wife fifteen children were born, four at one time twice, three at one time twice, and one on another occasion. By his second wife twins were brought into the world twice, triplets once and five children one at a time. Then his third wife bore him eight children one at a time. John's first wife lived six years and three weeks after their marriage, while his second wife lived eight years and six months. His first wife bore him eight sons, his second wife five and his third five prospective recruits for the Army. Of those now in the Service seven are by his first wife, five by the second and one by the present wife. Just to keep up the Service record of the family another son served in the Cavalry, but is not now soldiering but living peacefully at Wilson, N. C. Paraphrasing the sentiment of that immortal American, Nathan Hale, John Ward's chief regret is that he has no more sons to give to his country.—Army and Naval Journal.
